

GEP APAC is a leading non-profit Oil & Gas professional association of companies based in Singapore, operating throughout Asia Pacific and covering all industry segments from Upstream to Downstream.

GEP APAC's Goal

Our goal is to assist our members develop their business through the provision of various platforms. We bring together our members to form a strong network to create business synergies, promote technology & industrial excellence and share industry information. We achieve our goal through establishing relationships with Chambers of Commerce, peer associations, International Oil Companies, National Oil Companies, related Ministries and other Government Agencies.

Why Join GEP APAC

1. Participate in GEP APAC networking events
2. Participate in trade missions in the Asia Pacific region
3. Participate in technical workshops to present your technologies to potential suppliers, clients and partners
4. Enjoy discount rates at conferences and seminars organized by GEP APAC strategic partners
5. Promote your company via GEP APAC oil and gas global community portal
6. Benefit from GEP APAC International & Professional networks in each geographical area
7. Be informed on the latest regional and international Oil & Gas projects and developments through our monthly newsletter and members online website